Omega Again Named One of Top 5 Software Companies in Arizona

"Ranking Arizona" Survey Determines Listings Based on Quality of Products, Service and People

PHOENIX—October 12, 2006—For the third year in a row, Omega has been voted into the top five software companies in Arizona in the 10th annual opinion survey entitled, "Ranking Arizona: The Best of Arizona Business." The survey, sponsored by Arizona Business Magazine, asks readers to vote based on quality of product, service and people. Conducted online at www.azbusinessmagazine.com, readers choose among more than 5,000 businesses from more than 200 business and leisure categories.

Omega ranked fourth (up from fifth in the 2006 survey; 3rd in 2005).

"Continually being voted into the top 5 software companies in Arizona shows that Omega is successfully reaching our goal of delivering superior technology and customer service to law firms in this state and throughout the country," said Donald A. Gall, ScD, president and CEO, Omega Legal Systems, Inc.
